Wastewater treatment plant operators and managers are invited to attend a seminar sponsored by the Nevada Water Environment Association in support of the NDEP 104(g) Circuit Rider Program. The cost for the 1-½ day workshop, which includes text and continental breakfasts on both days, is only $75 per person for NWEA members and $100 for non-members. If you are a 104(g) Circuit Rider community, the cost is FREE.

Those who are interested in attending are asked to indicate your participation on the conference registration form.

Registrations can also be faxed to 775-329-3218 (Reno). If you have any questions, please call 775-329-7757 and talk with Jackie or Linda. Please register early!
