

TLS Annual Gathering, November 2-5, 2006

Dear Members & Friends,

We are delighted to announce that registration for this year's Annual Gathering is now officially open. Early bird prices are good through 15 August. The location is T bar M Conference Center, New Braunfels, Texas, USA

The twilight photo shows the Conference Center itself. Clicking on it will take you to the T bar M website where you can browse to see more of this beautiful facility.

As you'll observe from this image, the room accommodations are attractive, reflecting a regional Texas-ranch-like decor...

...and the meetings rooms are equally comfortable and inviting.

Postal Mailing

An envelope containing gathering-related materials will be mailed to you first-class this week via the US Postal Service.

Following are hyperlinks you may use immediately to access specific forms and/or information pages on the website:
